

Carefully Consider
your Path

5. One of the weights that can slow you down in your significant journey can be events from your past. Yet God says “forget those things which are behind”. Forgiveness may be the key to doing this. Do you need to lay aside a weight by forgiving someone today?

6. “The sin which so easily besets us” could be defined as those sins and temptations which we are prone to repeat because of our own particular weaknesses. We all have them. What do these verses say is key to your success in laying aside these besetting sins?
  - a. Deuteronomy 5:32-33

  - b. Psalms 119:1-11

7. Consider your path and the circumstances of your life. Which of these words would describe where you are at right now (season of waiting, hardship, transition, crossroads, anticipation, questioning, loneliness, fulfillment, other)?
  - a. How have you seen God in the midst of your circumstances?

8. On any traveled road, there is uncertainty of what lies around the next bend. Your circumstances could change at any moment. Cynthia Heald says “It is important to remember that we hold the hand of a Father who has perfect knowledge of what lies ahead, and perfect intentions for what He will allow us to go through.” What does God promise you in Philippians 4:6-7? What are the conditions of that promise?
